

Greenhouse Gas Emissions: Are Irish cattle the solution or the problem?

Conor Geraghty
President of Veterinary Ireland

Prof Frank Mitloehner
Dept of Animal Science
at the University of California

Prof Frédéric Leroy
Vrije Universiteit
Brussel, Belgium

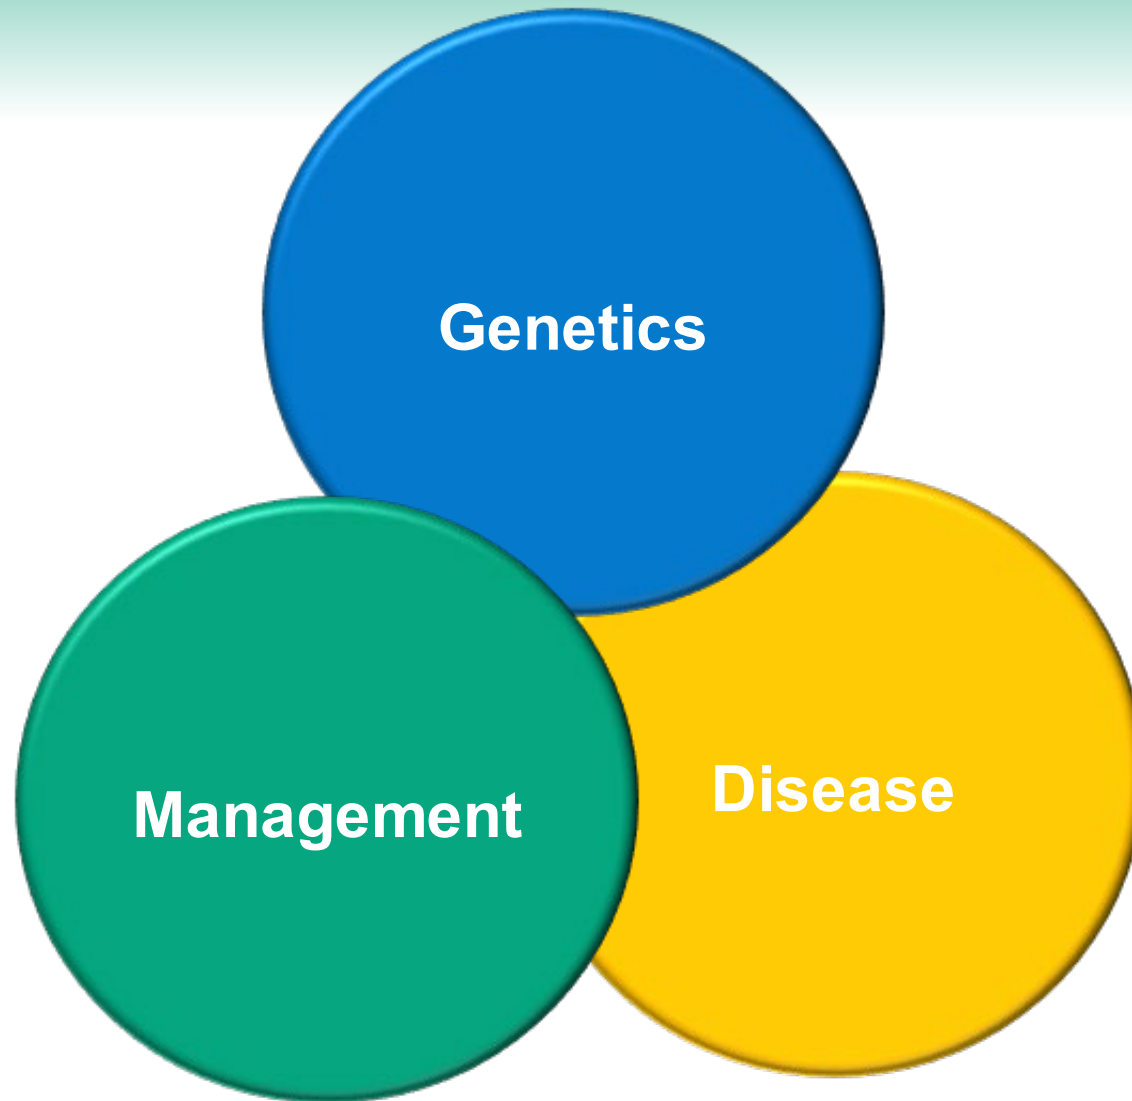

Justin McCarthy
Editor, Irish Farmers
Journal

Date: Tuesday 2nd June 2020 | Time 7.30pm - 9.30pm

 @msd_ah #greencowgreenclimate | www.bovillis.ie

Increasing Efficiency to Reduce GHG Emissions

Healthier Cows Reduce GHG Emissions

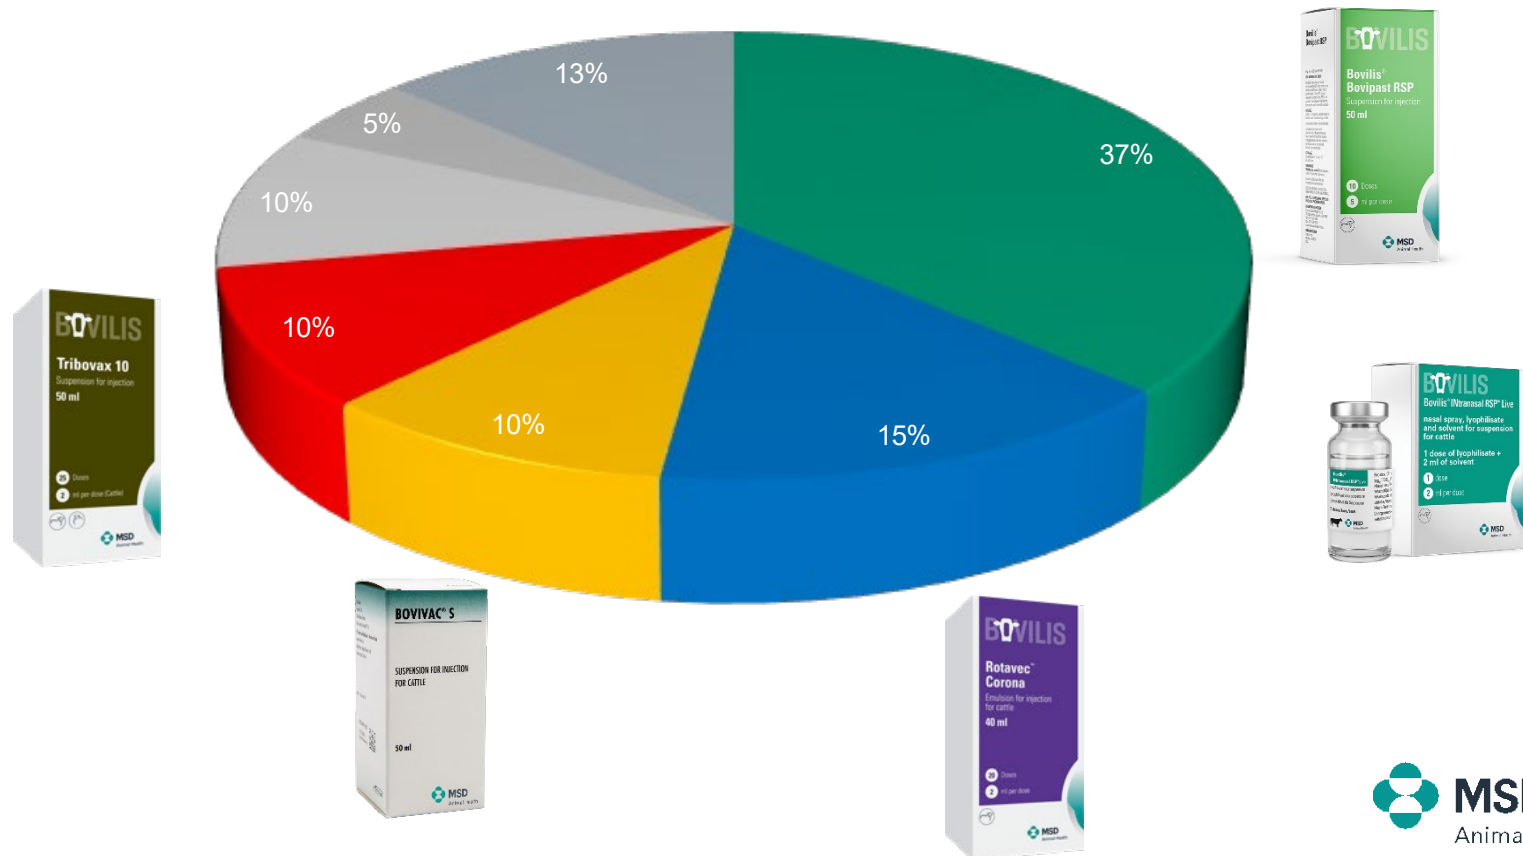

Source: Climate Change & Cattle Farming, In Practice, 2017

Healthier Calves Reduce GHG Emissions

BOVILIS
Protect the future

Mortality in Calves

■ Respiratory ■ Diarrhoea ■ Septicaemia ■ Clostridial ■ Nutritional ■ Navel/Joint ■ Other

 MSD
Animal Health

Are Irish Cattle the Problem or the Solution?

BOVILIS
Protect the future

